"48"

Well Tall boy;

You've had your troubles this year and I've had mine. I hope, what I've done this year and what you've done hasn't made enemies of us. I don't mean half what I said. I don't let your love life get you down. Here's hopin' you get all you deserve and want unless I'm chasin' the same one and then all's fair in love and war. Best of Luck to ya.

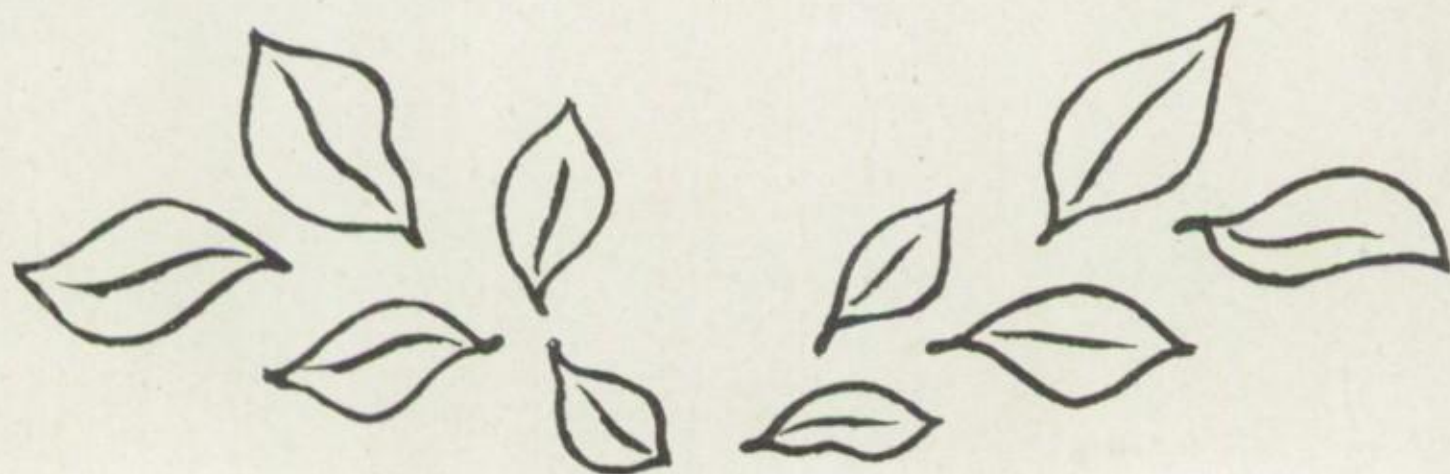

Oh. My GOD. OFFICER, I'M SORRY

VOLUME 28

CLASS of 1948

EAST LANSING HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

A Trojan is a mythical founder of the ancient city of Troy. In this 1948 Centiad we hope to show that the East Lansing High School Trojans are very real. You will see them at work and at play; you will read of their achievements; you will know their deeds of 1947 and 1948. May you find as much enjoyment in this record as we, the staff, have found in preparing it for you.

In Memory of Bert Sever An Appreciation

September twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred forty-seven will long be remembered as the date of the passing of a real friend. We do not feel his spirit is gone. His punctuality, his willingness to help, his interest and concern in our comfort, his smile and pleasant voice will be remembered a long, long time. During his illness, he repeatedly expressed the necessity of getting back to work. His work was his life, for therein was the opportunity to do for others. Words often fail to adequately express our appreciation, hence we dedicate this volume to his memory. He was a true Trojan. Like the poet he would say —

*"So be my passing,
My task accomplished, and the long day done,
My wages taken and in my heart
Some late lark singing;
Let me be gathered in the quiet west,
The sunset, splendid and serene."*

Student Councils

The basis of student government in East Lansing High School rests in two well organized councils, one for grades nine to twelve and one for the seventh and eighth grades. Each functions separately but with similar goals.

Elected last spring by the high school students, President Jim Adams and Vice President Bill Waddell, together with Fran Hanslovsky who was appointed secretary, led the senior council through an outstandingly successful year. Even with a meeting every week, time seemed to fly so that between policies, problems, projects, and pursuits, there was always plenty to be done.

With the proceeds from the magazine drive of last fall, the council purchased a tape recorder and a public address system to be used in the auditorium and on the football field. The curtains on the gymnasium stage showed a great improvement after being cleaned and repaired through the council.

The second annual Alumni Ball, given for alumni and students in the Union ballroom at Christmas time, was hailed as the biggest informal dance of the year. No one ever saw so many ex-students at a function as assembled for this party. It was great to see the old gang.

As for finance, the council-sponsored paper drive took care of the greater share of money problems, especially the carnival. The whole high school took part in the carnival which was a busy, bustling, jolly night for all. Also under the jurisdiction of the council, varsity and reserve cheer leaders were chosen, pep assemblies were planned, and money was appropriated for new outfits for the cheer leaders.

The officers of the Junior Student Council were Nancy Bauer, president, and Audra Stark, secretary. Their job is to plan for the welfare of the seventh and eighth grades. Junior council members gain much valuable experience in student government, thus preparing them for senior council.

Faculty members were Miss Stophlet and Mr. Stauffer of senior council, and Mrs. Myers of junior council.

CLASSES

Seniors

Guard — Oh, worthy Emperor! The Class of '48 is ready to go out into the great world. They wish to say a few parting words.

King — They have, indeed, done a tremendous job, and are a tribute to our school life. Let them speak!

I just can't believe it. It seems like yesterday when we entered this good old school. Yes! East Lansing High School was soon to become a part of us; a part which in spite of the school work, is the home of many unforgettable memories. So our hats off to the best school in the world — E. L. H. S.

As sophomores we were well on our way in making a name for ourselves. For our officers we elected Jim Thomson, president; Cynthia Doyle, vice president; Jim Adams, secretary, and Bob Kropschot, treasurer. As sophomores we were only starting with the presentation of fine parties such as "Club 48". In our beautifully decorated gymnasium our night club theme was carried out to the fullest extent. "Club 48" was said to be the finest Sophomore Prom ever to be presented.

In the field of athletics, the sophomores were not taking a back seat for anybody. Ronnie Penner had received his Varsity letter in his freshman year, and twelve more of our fellows also received the same honor.

As juniors we were destined to play a predominant part in school affairs. Our class was under the capable direction of Jim Herrick, Stan Stoddard, Ann Foster, and Jim Adams.

In this great year we formed the famous Shakespearean Players. This group was the spirit and support of the pep assemblies.

Then came "Double Door". Yes! the juniors were attempting a dramatic play. And what a play! The school's most outstanding theatrical success! When you recall "Double Door" you recall a play that had all the qualities to make it unforgettable.

Being ambitious youngsters we out-did ourselves in frostbite sales, hour dances, the carnival, and the All-High Revue. Yes! Whenever the school undertook a project, the juniors were the main cog in the wheel.

"Undercurrent", the dance of the year was cleverly decorated, depicting marine life, sunken ships, treasure chests, and beautifully colored fish floating through green seaweed. The couples danced to the music of Dick Charles' orchestra. It was another outstanding event and will long be remembered.

We certainly can say our junior year for the class of '48, was a colossal one.

As time seems to be swiftly slipping away from us this last year, we feel a little sentimental about its coming to a close, but we hope our spirit and determination to have a job well done will remain with this school forever.

Our officers are striving to make this another year to be remembered. Our leaders are Ken Fuce, president; Dan Burlingame, vice president; Barbara Peeke, secretary, and Howard Weaver, treasurer. We are also fortunate in having Miss Stophlet, Miss MacDonald, and Miss Beaumont as our class sponsors.

To start the year rolling, the Class of '48 along with the support of the Class of "47" gave the school a juke box. (Thanks '47.)

The homecoming celebration being held the night our football team played Marshall, we sent those boys home with a defeat of 12 to 0. Our boys were really on their toes that night, and to top the evening off was the annual Homecoming Dance where the King and Queen are crowned. Charlotte Wellman was chosen queen, and Ken Fuce elected king. Nancy Lostutter, Dottie Vickers, Fran Hanslovsky, and Mary Anne Langius comprised the queen's court.

Blessed with loads of talent, the Seniors decided to present the Broadway success, "Ramsack Inn". Under the capable leadership of Mr. Richard the play was a "sell out".

The senior class also controlled a coke machine this year, and it has proved to be a financial success. Another outstanding business venture was the paper drive.

We shall close our successful year with the Senior Prom, May 22; the Junior-Senior Banquet, June 3; Baccalaureate, June 6; and Commencement, June 10.

The Class of '48 has come to the end of its High School career. We wish to thank East Lansing High School for giving us some of "The Best Years of Our Lives".

JUNIORS

Guard — Oh, Mighty King, I present you the Class of '49 that has done a great many deeds this year, and that will be our leaders next year.

King — I anxiously await to hear from them. As they will be tomorrow's leaders in our way of life, let them speak on what they have accomplished this last year.

The Class of '49 got off to a conspicuous start this year by electing the following officers: Chuck Hubbard, president; George Prall, vice president; Bob Howell, treasurer; and Rosemarie Mooar, secretary. These officers had a large job in front of them to prepare the class for its tasks the next year as seniors.

In the spring of last year, Bill Waddell was elected by the student body as vice president of the student council. Last fall, the class elected Bill Metzel, Larry Cooke, Elwood Ruhl, Jim Harrison, and Chuck Hubbard to be the other active members of the council.

The big social event of the year was, of course, the annual J-Hop which this year was titled "Opus in Hearts." Music for the dance was furnished by Harmond Burrell and his orchestra. Since the party took place on Valentine Day, February 14, co-chairmen of the dance, Kay Cole and Bob Lewsader, fully carried out the valentine theme in the colorful decorations.

During the football campaign, four juniors especially stood out. They were Elwood Ruhl, Tom Otto, Bill Metzel, and Bob Ewing. Members of the Class of '49 again stood out as basketball hit the headlines during the winter months. Bill Metzel made the first team, while Bill Waddell and Elwood Ruhl were on the second team. When spring sports rolled around, the juniors again took a leading part in the success of those activities.

The class also had its first venture into dramatics when it presented the junior play on April 23. Many members of the class worked in the cast and on the various committees to make the production a great success.

As a money making project, the class held its annual paper drive on the 14th of April. This proved very profitable.

To close the year they united with the seniors for the Junior-Senior Banquet and a grand time was had by all those present. It was a fitting close of a great year for juniors.

*Hi there!
Don't forget all of those days in the cafeteria — huh!
Best of luck — always to a sweet fellow.
Love,
Dolores*

SOPHOMORES

Class of '50

King — Oh, master of the guards! What news have you brought me concerning the future of my empire?

Guard — Oh, King, entering into your court today is the Class of '50. I have with me a complete report of their activities over the past year.

King — You will deliver it to me.

Guard — Last spring the Class of '50 elected the following students to lead them through the year. They were as follows: president, Dave Thomson; vice president, Donine Stark; secretary, Susan Klaver; treasurer, Janet Matteson. These officers performed very efficiently in bringing the class through a successful year.

The big social event of the year was the Soph Prom, which was presented January 17, under the name of "El Borracho." The price of tickets was a little steep, but most people agreed that they got their money's worth. The music was furnished by Bill Faunce's orchestra. The many committee chairmen and the class as a whole joined hands to make this a fine dance.

Also the Class of '50 was well represented on the Senior Student Council by six of its members. They were Nancy Burhans, John Bachman, Dave Hunt, Dean Stoppel, Fen Hicks, and Dave Thomson. They took a very active part in student affairs.

Turning to sports, when the call for football sounded in the fall eighteen sophs greeted the coaching staff. John Bachman, Bob Campbell and Ron Eckert made the varsity, while the other fifteen were members of the reserve squad.

When winter came, it was basketball and wrestling that took over the spotlight. Fifteen boys reported out for basketball and five for wrestling. In the cage sport, four of the sophs fought their way to positions on the second team reserves and saw a great deal of action.

This spring will find many of the class going out for baseball and track.

The Varsity club also was built upon a number of members of the Class of '50.

The class had many people in the band and orchestra and displayed a high degree of school spirit. They look forward to next year to even greater junior activities.

FRESHMEN

King — Guard! Why do you disturb me at this hour of rest?

Guard — Oh, King, I wish to present to you the class of '51, who have entered into the upper class for the first time this year.

King — I am eager to hear of them, as they are the future leaders of our country. Bid them enter.

The freshman class got off to a good start last year when they elected John Richardson, president; Dave Ronk, vice president; Johannah Beurmann, secretary; and Mildred Runnels, treasurer.

On October 24, the Class of '51 chartered a bus to go to Hillsdale to see the Twin Valley champs in action. Thirty-five lucky students made the trip only to see the Trojan eleven go down to its only loss of the season. After the game the students went to the hour dance at Hillsdale High School.

The freshman football team, coached by Mr. Adams, had a pretty successful season, winning three, tying one, and losing one. The team suffered a mid-season mishap when half-back John Brogan received a fractured collar bone. Mr. Klingman's basketball team has gotten past the class "B" schools on its schedule, but the class "A" schools have proved to be pretty stiff opposition. The freshman cheer leaders who give the team a great deal of moral support are Joan Adcock, Evelyn Noble, Patty Gregory, Sally Gibson, and Sylvia Sepeter.

Representing the class in the Senior Student Council are Bill Voigt, Mildred Runnels, and Dick Doolen from the home rooms and John Richardson as class president.

Those representing the band from the freshman class include: Danny Webster, Glenda Stelson, Bernie Davis, Marilyn Evans, Fred Dawe, Alice Severance, Alice Haack, John Clifford, Putman Robbins, Lee Person, Gerry Conley, George Comden, Francis Reed, Charlotte Edwards, Ann Denington, and Marion Stienbaur.

The Class of '51 also was prominent in social activities, as they took an active part in hour dances and sponsored a party of their own.

King: Oh honored guard of the city of Troy, who are these people that you bring before me?

Guard: They are those who wish to reach a higher ranking in the ways of our triumphant land. But come! Let them speak for themselves!

Group: O King, and valiant Trojans all, let me present to you the Class of '52. At the close of this year, it will become full valiant with all of you. This class has prepared a scroll, which tells you of their year's pursuits.

SCROLL — CLASS OF '52

Our class started its eighth grade year by electing the following officers: Dick Davidson, president; Jack Herrick, vice-president; Barbara Wheeler, secretary; Betty Musselman, treasurer.

We had two fine class sponsors, Miss Murray and Mrs. Myers, who helped us greatly.

Our social life this year started October 30, when we had a seventh and eighth grade Hallowe'en party sponsored by the P. T. A. The gymnasium was decorated with pumpkins and corn stalks. Everybody enjoyed the dancing, movies, and games. The refreshments were doughnuts and cider. A Christmas party, also held in the gym, was sponsored by the Junior Student Council. Big snowmen stood by the door and Christmas trees lighted each end of the gymnasium. There were dancing and games, and to top it off, there were cokes.

On January 30, we had an all class party for the eighth grade. Of course, we had the usual dancing and refreshments.

This year, for the first time, the boys got together and formed a glee club and took part in the Christmas program.

Another extracurricular activity was Junior G. A. A. which met every Friday night. The boys played on intramural teams in basketball, football, baseball, and track. The eighth grade basketball team was outstanding in its playing against junior high teams from other schools. Over half of the eighth graders belong to the Science Club.

Eighth graders also worked hard to make the magazine drive a success.

Guard: Who are these strangers who approach the house of the Trojans?

Group: We are the Class of '53 from East Lansing High School.

Guard: Come forward and be recognized.

Group: We the Class of '53 are proud to join hands with the king. This past year our class sponsors were Miss Schmieding and Mrs. Kovacs. We have appreciated the classroom and extracurricular guidance of our teachers.

This year, we established the seventh grade council which replaced the former large group meeting. Members included the four class officers and four representatives from each section of the class.

Guard: Who have been your leaders?

Group: Our class officers have been Bob Riggs, president; Dick Riggs, vice president; Don Smith, treasurer, and Barbara Werle, secretary.

Guard: Do you bring news with which to entertain his highness?

Group: Yes, indeed. Please to give ear. In the fall we attended the Junior High P. T. A. Hallowe'en party in the high school gymnasium. We played games and feasted ourselves upon doughnuts and really good cider. Fine music for dancing was provided.

On December 9, with the Class of '52 we shared the fun at a party sponsored by the Junior Student Council in the gymnasium. Dancing, mixers, and refreshments were the main events.

The annual class party was held in the spring. This is a wee bit akin to higher Trojan proms. Certainly we all enjoyed the dancing.

But parties are not all our activities. The girls play chinese soccer, newcome, basketball, table tennis, and volley. Even some of the girls are members of G. A. A. The boys play basketball and football, and have numerous relay events. We also have basketball and football leagues.

We have participated creditably in all worthy school drives and projects. We are represented in music, art, and various clubs.

Guard: Your report is good. You have much in your favor. You may pass through the portals to join us.

This year the two school boards of Girls' Athletic Association have been merged into one with representatives on it from all grades. With Mrs. Thaden as their sponsor, they took charge of all the after school tournament games and kept a record of all the points earned by the association members. In the spring, awards were given to those people who had earned a certain number of points in tournaments and outside sports during the year. The purchase of letters and award pins was made possible by selling frostbites and hot dogs at games and also by sponsoring one of the hour dances. A swimming party at the Lansing Y crowned the year as one of their main social events.

Orpheus has nothing on us. Here, in our music department, we have two great high school instrumental groups, well known to all. Our band, under the direction of Mr. Rinehart, rated high in Second Division last spring in the State Festival at Ann Arbor and is still on its way to bigger and better things. This fall the marching band presented to us many formations and added to their list many outstanding ones, a few done with lighted band hats in total darkness. The effect was something to behold.

They excel not only in marching but also as a concert band. With over sixty hard working members, their performances in the spring and winter concerts were unsurpassed and we wish them the best of luck this year at State Festival.

Strings practice sweet music, too. Also directed by Mr. Rinehart is our forty piece orchestra. They, too, entered State Festival last spring and were rated Second Division. Their first appearance this year was at Christmas time and thoroughly enjoyed. In the spring and winter concerts we find them taking an active part. They're a conscientious gang.

Our hats off to all of you fine musicians — we're proud of you!

In order to prepare E. L. H. S. students for such fine high school instrumental groups, we find our junior high hard at work. Also directed by Mr. Rinehart and as a regular class, they have gained much valuable training and they also participated in both the winter and spring instrumental concerts.

If you were one of the many that made use of our own school library this past year, whether browsing through fact, fiction, or files, you must have noted the fine job done by our library staff. They have catalogued all the new books, have added greatly to the vocations' files and revised the filing system.

During the year they were guests of the Sexton and Eastern library clubs at parties in the two schools and also returned the invitation with a party here. All students agree that the staff made our studying easier and better with their fine material and assistance.

Lend an ear and listen! Those vivacious vocal harmonies you'll hear come from none other than our own East Lansing High School Girls' Glee Club. This year our new director, Mrs. Irvin, has given this sixty-five voice glee club many fine opportunities for public performances throughout the entire year. Not only have they put on programs for many community clubs and concerts, but in November they transcribed a radio show to help introduce the clothing drive. At Thanksgiving and at Christmas they took part in the annual school programs.

Accompanying for Girls' Glee Club this year was done by Janice Button and Kitty Lou Dawe. The Glee Club is to be congratulated for the First Division rating they received with Miss Dooley last spring in the State Festival.

1947-48 marks the second year that music awards have been given to members of the vocal department, and this spring many of our musical gals and guys were presented with pins and letters.

And now, the male members of the vocal department. Under Mrs. Irvin's direction, the forty members of Boy's Glee Club have worked hard and given a number of splendid performances, including those for community clubs, a radio show, and a part in the Thanksgiving and Christmas programs. At State Festival last spring they earned a very fine Second Division rating. Ed Thaden, our nimble fingered musician, deserves credit for the fine job of accompanying he has done. In January a group of the members went to Ann Arbor to sing with the All-State Chorus and later to Detroit to be part of the chorus which sang for the National Music Convention.

A cappella choir is a special vocal group of students who rehearse for one period each week. In spite of their short rehearsal time they have produced some very fine music. Last spring, Miss Dooley's choir received a First Division rating for their outstanding performance in State Festival.

"Ramshackle Inn"

SENIOR PLAY

On November 21 the Senior Class presented "Ramshackle Inn." The play was directed by Mr. Warren Richard with the assistance of Barbra Leichty, assistant director; and Fran Hanslovsky, assistant producer.

Belinda Pryde, scatter-brained spinster, and her partner, Commodore Lucius Towser, buy a ramshackle inn from Mame Phillips, and unwittingly acquire with it, a gang of bootleggers who use it as their hideout. With the dealings of the bootleggers are mixed the murders of Mr. Arbuthnot, a mysterious roomer at the inn, and Mr. Temple, the town banker. Belinda attempts to solve the mystery and finds herself tangling, not only with Patton, the general handyman, but also with Dr. and Mrs. Steven Russell, who hold as a prisoner Alice Fisher, the "moll." Constable Small and Sergeant Gilhooley represent the strong arm of the law. Of course no play would be complete without romance, and in this case it is provided by Bill Phillips, an unjustly convicted thief, and Mary Temple. Further confusion is added by the presence of Joyce Rogers, who is supposedly waiting for her husband. The climax comes when Fred Porter, of the Coast Guard, arrives on the scene, and is revealed as the head of the bootlegging racket.

Stage Crew

Ever ready and ever willing to try anything — that is the stage crew. Each time there is a play or a program such comments as "That light is too bright!", "Help! A flat is falling!" or "Can't you please make that rain drip faster?" can be heard throughout the auditorium. With each plea a member of the stage crew comes to the rescue. They know our stage and what to do to get along with it. We all thank you, boys, for contributing to this year's entertainment.

Prophecies

JACK REDDY

As a Joyful Restaurateur he'll sell all from steaks to cider;
As the prices go up, his smile will get wider.

WAYMAN SMITH

Business will boom, all will get a fine tan,
Sunlamps will be his product when he's a Willing Salesman.

MARILYN SPALDING

The paint on the bill board will never grow fainter
When she gets the job of a Model Signpainter.

CAROL STOPPEL

A Charming Singer she will be —
All will swoon when she hits high "E"

JEAN WEST

As a Jolly Writer she'll do her stuff;
Her hero will be handsome, the villain tough.

VIRGINIA YOUNG

A Vigilant Yodeler she'll turn out to be;
The Alps will echo with her "Yodel-adel-ee".

The tea for new members started off the years many activities of the Senior Y-Teens. The club had eighty-seven members this year. Following this, the first item on the agenda was a tea for the mothers, introducing a Family Relations Program. This was something new in the school, but the club carried the program out very successfully.

The girls had a great deal of fun playing Santa Claus at the Children's Home in Lansing to make the children's Christmas gay. Y-Teens also took baskets and gave them presents. They sponsored an hour dance, packed clothing for over seas, and sponsored the Hall Monitors.

The club, combined with the Home Economics club sponsored "Celestial Ball". The formal was a highlight of the Christmas Season.

The officers were Ann Foster, president; Margie Brogan, vice president; Nancy Lostutter, secretary; Janet Mosher, treasurer; and Miss MacDonald, who was a wonderful sponsor.

The service chairmen were Diane Metzel and Kay Cole, inter-club council; Charlotte Wellman, co-ed council; Nancy Reed, program chairman; Lois Jacquarys, worship chairman; Fran Hanslovsky, music chairman; Bobbie Rinkes, publicity chairman; and Pat Brennen, social chairman.

Home Ec Club

The social and service calendar was crammed full this year for the ever active Home Economics Club.

The year got under way with a big dues drive. Sides were chosen and the team that got their dues paid first made the other team give them a bohemian.

"Celestial Ball" was the first formal of the year sponsored by the Home Ec and Senior Y-Teens Clubs. This being the first year the formal was combined, co-chairmen were appointed. The ball turned out to be one of the biggest formal in quite some time. At Christmas time, baskets were sent to needy families and a party was given for the children at Sparrow Hospital. To raise money for all these worthy projects, bake goods and candy sales were held by the members of the club.

As a service project, newspapers were folded for the hospital, and refreshments served to all football players; while on the intellectual side, speakers were obtained to speak on different countries, and war brides talked to the club.

Hay-rides and several hour dances were sponsored throughout the year, topped off by a picnic given with the Senior Y-Teens Club in the spring.

All this was carried on by Janie Olin, president, and her fine corps of officers which include: Ann Winton, vice president; Rosemary Wise, secretary; and Diane Metzel, treasurer. The worthy sponsors were Mrs. Artutis and Mrs. Branaman.

Ye Old Testament

- I, TOM CAMPBELL, hereby leave to install a meter in my car.
- I, BILLIE GARRIGAN, offer my strapless formal to anyone who can keep it up with less trouble than I.
- I, JACK HARRIS, relinquish my position in the Radio Club to Bob Baltzer.
- I, JIM HERRICK, abandon my tardiness record, but will return soon or late to see if it has yet been equalled.
- I, BOB HORWOOD, leave the dirty towels (and other ODD jobs) to the next basketball manager.
- I, KEITH HOVER, leave the mysteries of the juke box to any underclassman who can figure out how to make it run.
- I, MARY HUDDLESON, offer my long walk to school to Mary Anne Barrow.
- I, DON KILLEEN, bequeath my worm's eye view to Johnny Bachman.
- I, BARBARA KUNKEL, relinquish my ability for getting along with teachers to Dick Taber.
- I, DERK LANTING, bequeath my bicycle to Mr. Adams in case of an emergency.
- I, BARBARA LEICHTY, leave my experiences in Mexico to some other lucky Spanish student—and hope that he or she may fare better.
- I, CLAIRE MILLS, leave my smile to Pepsodent for advertising. May their business increase.
- I, JEANNE MINSKEY, present my quiet ways to Lois Brumm.

Service, social activities, and worship make up the purpose of the Junior Y-Teen Club and are carried on throughout the year, dividing the meetings equally.

A great deal has been accomplished in the line of service. Posters were made for the Y-Teen shoe drive, while at Christmas, packages were wrapped for the Tuberculosis Sanatorium. Later in the year, bandages were folded for the hospitals. The most worthy project was sending Care boxes to Europe.

On the social side a Hag, Stag, and Drag dance was sponsored by this active club, while a big Mother and Daughter bohemian topped off the season of events.

Under the direction of Miss Benedict, Miss Osborn, and Mrs. Artutis, the members had a successful-enjoyable year.

Elected by the club to head them were: Lenora Fulkerson, president; Karen Foster, vice-president; Aloha Puckett, secretary; and Carol Noll, treasurer.

Membership in this club is open to the ninth and tenth grade girls only and it is one of the most active underclassmen's clubs.

Hi-Y Club

The Hi-Y Club doubled its membership this year with a total of forty-nine members. As all were active members, the club really accomplished a great deal. The club sponsored a colossal clothing drive for Europe. They had over a thousand pounds to send overseas. Selling East Lansing High School beanies, pennants, and T-shirts, plus selling pop and sponsoring an hour dance after the Albion game, were some of their many activities of the year.

The club attended the district Hi-Y meeting at the Lansing School for the Blind, and participated in the Basketball Tournament made up of the school in this district.

At the top of their list of social activities was the camping trip to Mystic Lake near Clare in February. They also attended an Older Boys Conference at Flint. They held a closed dance for members and their dates, and had a hayride in the spring.

They had several speakers during the year from Michigan State College including Mr. MacCaffree, swimming coach, Mr. Slatterman, head track coach, Mr. Collins, wrestling coach and Dale Faunce, Men's Counsellor.

The club's officers were Dan Burlingame, president; Bob Hafer, vice president; Stanford Stoddard, secretary; and Jim Morse, treasurer.

Mr. Freeman and Mr. Kiebler were their sponsors. Later when Mr. Freeman resigned, Mr. Bushman took his place.

Varsity Club

As old as the school itself, the Varsity Club has recorded another memorable year.

A bohemian dinner for the entire football team started the year off in September, followed in October by a father and son bohemian for the Varsity squad. At the close of the season, the annual football banquet was held under the direction of the Varsity Club assisted greatly by the mothers and dads of the team.

In December twenty-seven new members were initiated into the club by both formal and informal initiation. The total membership was forty-three. The officers elected were Bob Foster, president; John Dykstra, vice president; and Howard Weaver, secretary-treasurer.

The club furnished ushers for all football and basketball games and provided cokes for both contesting teams. The members of the Varsity Club ushered at the State Finals in basketball.

In February an ever memorable bohemian and hayride was held for all members and their guests.

Sponsoring the club is Mr. Ketchman with Mr. Buschman. Mr. Adams, Mr. Kiebler, and Dr. Britton as honorary members.

First Row: L. Cation, M. Weber, P. Noll, B. Johnson, S. Grey, J. Werle, C. Wellman.

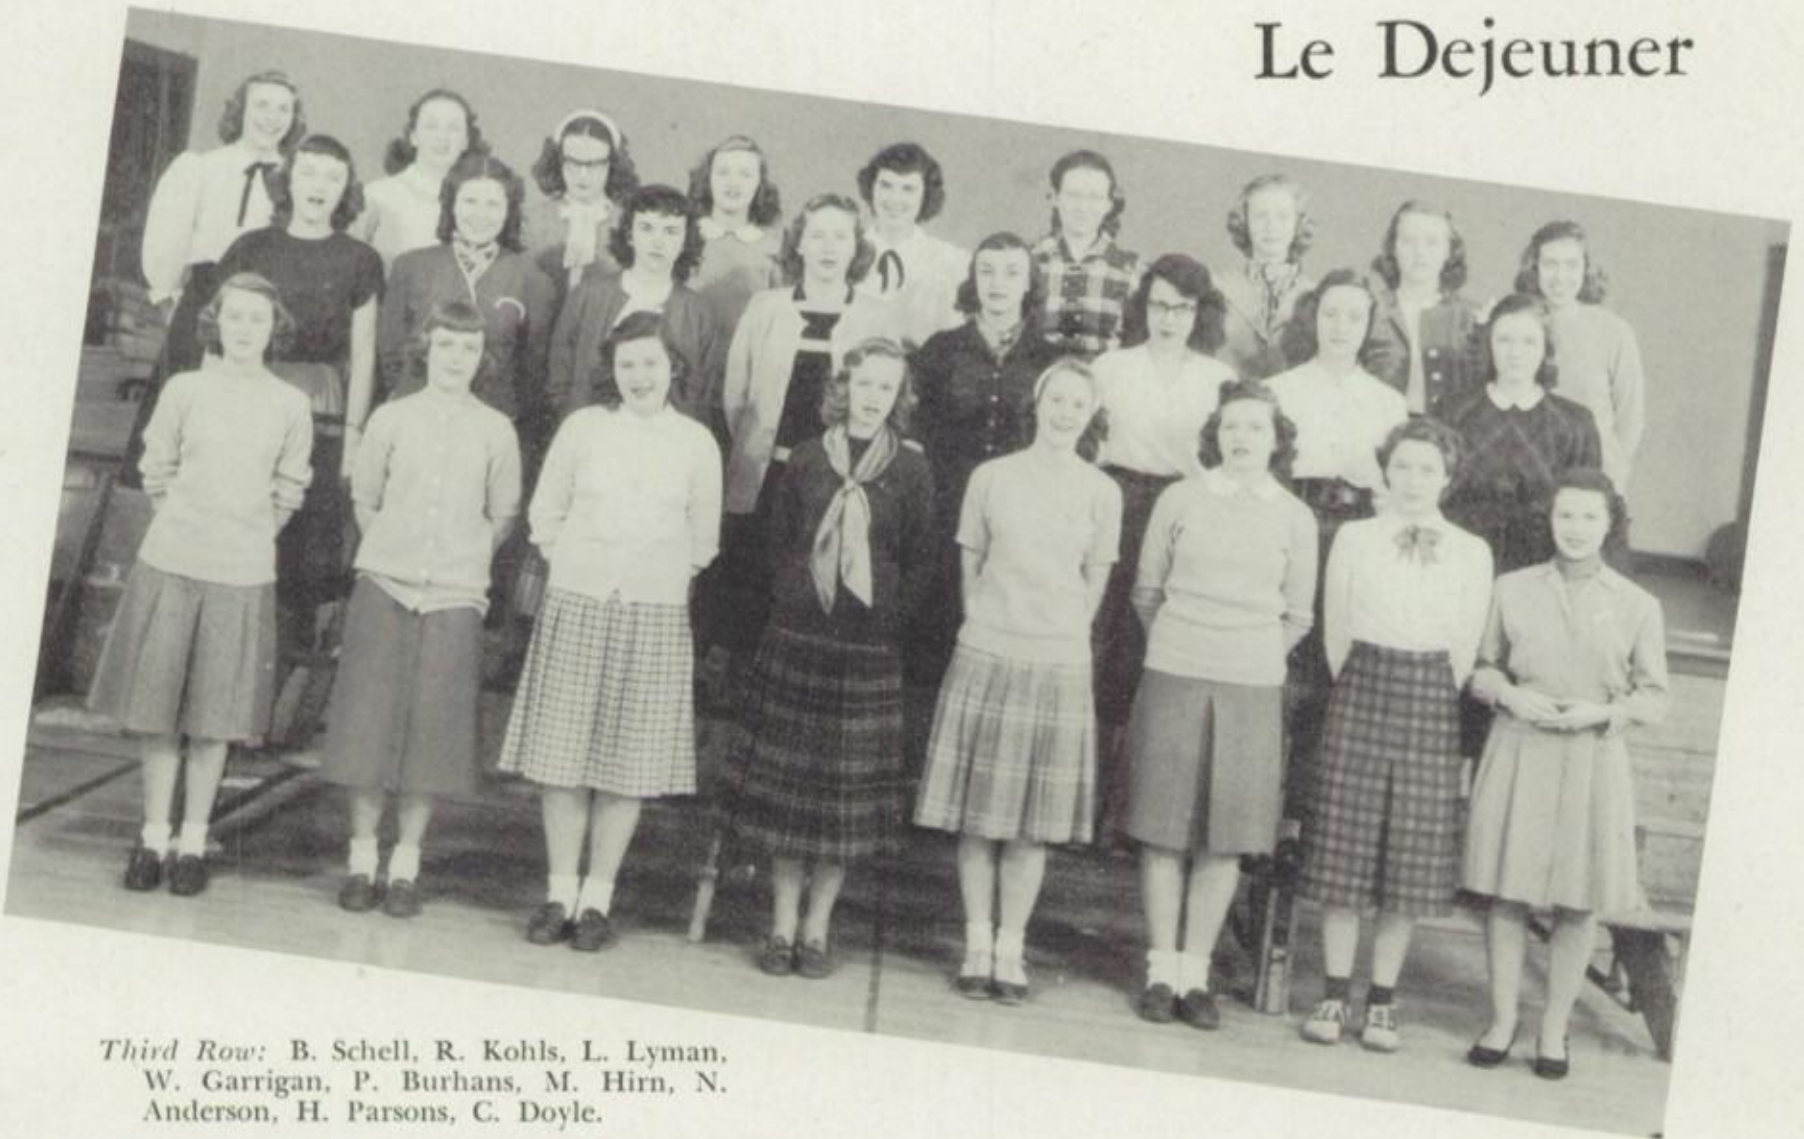

This year has been a busy one for the Pan American Club. They started out with a big Spanish banquet and initiation of the new members. Diane Metzel was elected president while Ben Paredes and Ronnie Penner were elected vice president and secretary-treasurer respectively.

The club consists of forty active members who are interested in knowing more about the customs and language of their South American neighbors.

Under the direction of Mrs. Johnston the club had many interesting social and service activities. The high spots of the year were the making of scrap books on our high school and community, which were sent to the high schools in South America, and the big "Sombrero Swing" dance, which took place during Pan American Week. During the year the club sponsored several hour dances, the big one being the Hallowe'en Dance given after the Cold-water game. Red Drennan and his orchestra furnished the music. Free doughnuts given away throughout the evening. Topping the year off was the big Language banquet with the Latin and French Clubs.

With the fine spirit shown this year, the Pan American Club had one of its most successful years.

The enterprising members of the French Club are working hard raising money so they can send boxes to their adopted child in France. This is a new experience for the club and a very worthy one too. This project got under way early this year under the direction of Mrs. Johnston, and is now the most important part of the club. The child is twelve years old and receives two packages a month filled with clothes, food, and luxuries. Candy sales and hour dances are two ways of raising money for filling the boxes. A steady correspondence is also carried on between the club and their child. This enables them to know more about the ways of the people and the conditions in modern France.

Bohemians are held frequently under the supervision of Barbara and Louise Black, who are Program Chairmen. French games and songs are enjoyed by the members at these informal meetings.

This club is one of the youngest clubs of the school and under Mary Anne Languis, who was elected president, Virginia Young, vice president, and Mary Lou DeGolia, secretary-treasurer, it is off to a good start and promises to be one of the most active clubs in the school.

Band and Orchestra Club

First Row: M. Byram, P. Cooley, C. Robbins, C. Noll, L. Sellhorn, L. Stelson, J. Pomeroy, E. Wright, G. Prescott.

The Band and Orchestra Club made a fine come back this year after a few years of being inactive. The club started with a very impressive formal initiation boasting fifty-one members.

The club sponsored a fine winter concert and also a spring concert. They chartered two buses to send the band to Hillsdale to play and to send the orchestra as a treat.

It had interesting meetings with guest speakers from the college and movies on music. The club had a concession at the State Band and Orchestra Festival, which was held in East Lansing.

Early February found two hundred seventy-five Band and Orchestra Club parents and families enjoying a bohemian in the school gymnasium, followed by a mock rehearsal of the band and the orchestra. Later in the year the members of the club, together with the parents, held a rummage sale and paper sale, the profits being used for musical equipment.

The club has done a great deal to further musical appreciation in our school program this past year. Mr. Rinehart was the sponsor of the club, and its officers were Dick Ingersoll, president; Carlton Sellhorn, vice president; Diane Metzel, secretary; and Ruth Weaver, treasurer.

Junior Hi Hobby Club

The Junior Hi Hobby Club was organized just this fall. It is sponsored by Mrs. Kovacs, and it meets every Wednesday after school. The twenty members chose to learn to play bridge this year, and incidentally provide their own gossip on the side.

They have been busy socially, too. Some of their activities were the Christmas party and several informal meetings at the homes of members.

Of course, the biggest accomplishment of the year was learning bridge fundamentals.

"This is the Radio and Electronic Club of East Lansing — talking with Jack Harris, president; Keith Hover, vice president; Don Hulbert, our secretary and Bob Baltzer as our treasurer."

"How many members have you?"

"Us? Why we have thirteen, our lucky number."

"Who is the sponsor of this club?"

"With Mr. Sebeson as our sponsor, how can we help but be one of the best."

"What do you do at these meetings?"

"We are now conducting a radio theory and practice class for our young associates. Also we are working on a project for the Michigan Junior Academy of Applied Science Arts and Letters. For our own amusement we are building a transmitter, which will enable us to keep in touch with the outside world."

"What do you use your dues for?"

"Our dues are spent for parts which go into the club project."

"What service do you do?"

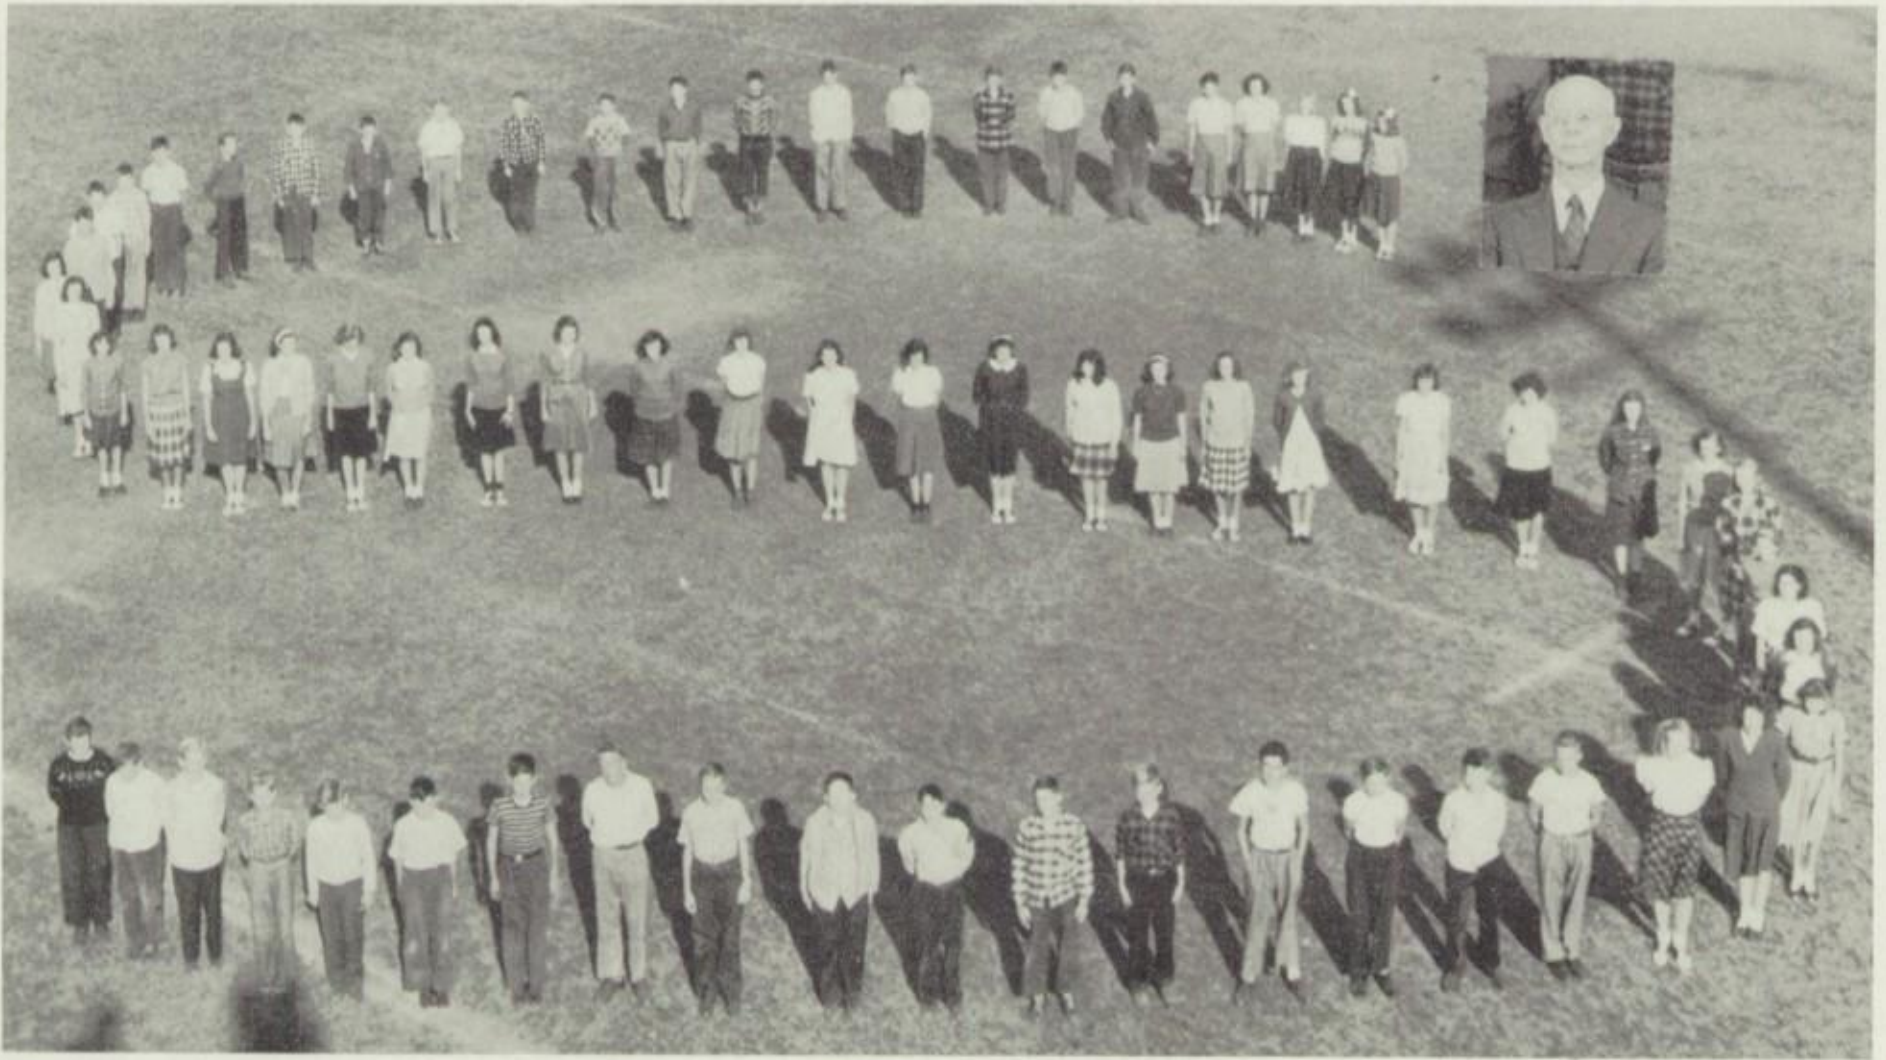

"At the home football games we operate and maintain the public address system."

"What do you do on the social side?"

"Our club is not a social club, but we have sponsored several hour dances during the year."

"Sorry, I can't find out some more about this interesting club, but our time is running short. So until next year this is the Inquiring Trojan saying — So long — !"

World Brotherhood Assembly

This year several of our assemblies were aimed at broadening our outlooks. Notable among these was the panel discussion on February 19, during World Brotherhood Week.

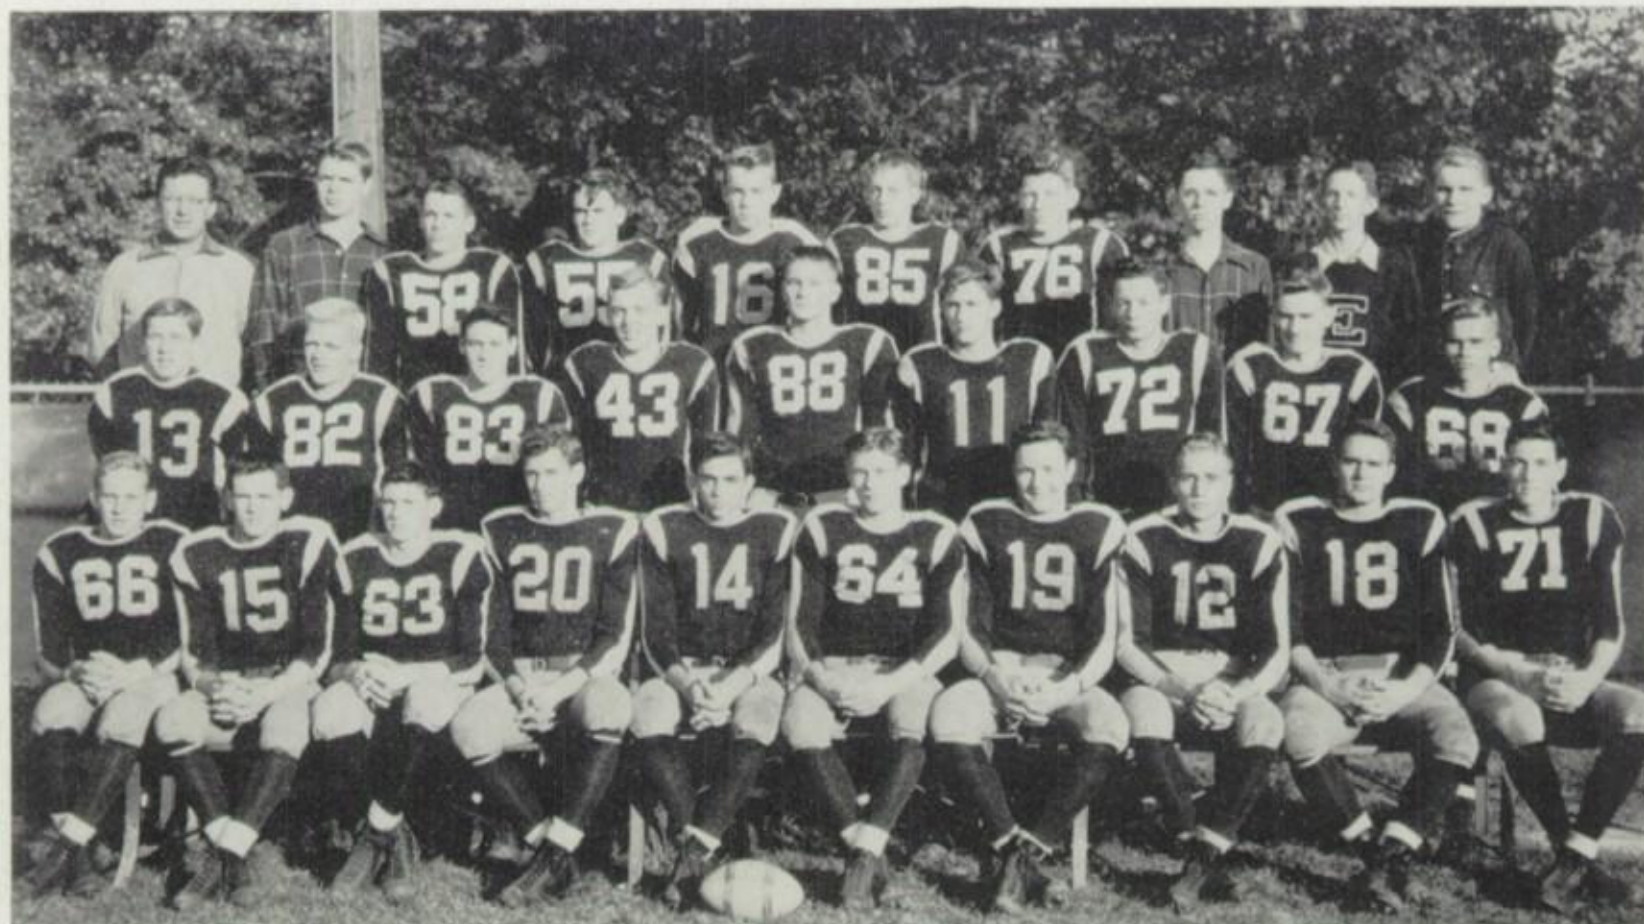

With Miss Nell Bloodgood, principal of Lincoln School in Lansing, as moderator were other members of the panel: Jean Rosier of France; Ben Paredes of El Salvador; Fred Johnson, an American Negro; Haitma El Khalidi of Arab Palestine; Mohammad Jamil of Pakistan; Miss Sumi Morimoto of Hawaii; and Dr. Lee of China.

The first part of the discussion was answering questions which had been submitted by the entire student body. In the second part of the discussion, questions from the floor were answered. It was an opportunity for us to become acquainted with people of other nationalities. It was an assembly appreciated and enjoyed by all.

In the 1947 season, East Lansing again produced one of the finest teams in its history. After a three year absence, the Trojan squad brought the Twin Valley Championship Trophy to the hallowed halls of East Lansing High School.

With practice starting September 1st, it gave Coach Sam Ketchman but three weeks to round out his starting eleven to face their first Twin Valley tilt against Albion. Showing tremendous drive and spirit which was to carry the Trojans through the season, Coach Ketchman's boys showed fine early season form by defeating Albion's "Buttons" 25 to 9. The following week East Lansing won the hard fought battle against Sturgis by scoring late in the fourth quarter to gain a 9 to 0 victory. As the men from Troy looked to their third game they found they faced the last year Championship team, Marshall. Playing alert, hard football the Trojan team scored in the first and again in the fourth quarter to turn in its most prized victory of the season by defeating the "Redskins" 12 to 0. The next week the Trojans made it four straight by winning from Adrian 13 to 6. As the mighty Trojan machine rolled on it swept in Battle Creek Lakeview by the score of 25 to 0 to make its fifth straight win. The following week the Trojans had their letdown. An underestimated Hillsdale squad fought out a 13 to 6 win over the Trojans for their only defeat of the year. As the Trojans swung into their sixth game they bounced back to the winning form they had missed the week before and defeated Coldwater 13 to 6 to win a most glorious Twin Valley Championship. To round out a most successful year the Trojans showed their Championship form against their only non-conference game by defeating Alma 18 to 7.

Football Short Shots

JOHN DYKSTRA, Senior, Tackle. John was voted most valuable player for the season and also was elected to the All Conference Team. Weighing 195 pounds, John did wonders on constantly stopping up the opposition plays. Although somewhat bothered by a sore back, John was in there all the way.

DAN REED, Senior, End. Dan was elected captain for the season and was also voted Captain of the All Conference first eleven. Dan proved most valuable on receiving passes, but his speed and defense were even more of an asset to the team.

JACK GREENSHIELD, Senior, Back. Jack, weighing 170 pounds and standing 6'2", did most of the heavy running and kicking during the season. He was elected to the All Conference backfield and also led the team by scoring the most touchdowns and extra points.

JIM HERRICK, Senior, Tackle. Jim was the iron man of the team and a bulwark of defense. Standing 6'3" and weighing 175 pounds, you never heard much from Jim, but he was always there fighting until the end. Jim won a berth on the second team All Conference.

JAKE SLOTNICK, Senior, End. It seems as if Jake caught too many passes in the Albion game, for he was watched very close from then on. Jake was one of the spark plugs of the line and was always in there with good hard blocking and tackling.

JIM MORSE, Senior, Back. Jim had a lot of trouble with a broken ankle but when he was in shape, did a great job on offense. Although small, Jim had the drive to get in there and gain those extra yards. Jim also did some of the passing.

JIM JOHNSON, Senior, Guard. Jim played on the offensive team and did a bang up job. He could open up the defenses at just the right time. Jim had a little trouble keeping his hands in the right place at the right time.

HOWARD WEAVER, Senior, End. Howie, although not a starter, saw a lot of action in most all of the games. Howie showed well against Lakeview on his end arounds, and his defensive work all season was excellent.

BOB KROPSCHOT, Senior, Guard and Tackle. Bob filled in the middle of the line on defense and did a fine job. Bob was not very heavy, but made up for it with his scrappiness. He weighed 170 pounds and stood 6'2".

BOB FOSTER, Senior, Back. Bob called the signals for the team and did a fine job. He was an excellent blocker and team player. His punt returns were exceptionally good against Coldwater. Bob was also placed on the second team All Conference.

ELWOOD RUHL, Junior, Center. Elwood shaped into a fine center this fall, and Coach Ketchman will be counting on him next year. He did a good job on backing up the line and made some timely pass interception against Marshall.

PAT WHITE, Senior, Center. Although Pat weighs only 155 lbs. he was an aggressive player. He was always in there plugging and when he finally did get his chance against Alma, he received a bad sprain which kept him from playing most of the game.

BOB EWING, Junior, Back. When Jim Morse was injured Bob stepped in and did an excellent job on offensive and defensive work. Bob's passing arm was one of the greatest in the conference, and should prove very valuable to the coach next year.

BILL METZEL, Junior, Back. Bill played excellent ball as a line back and made a good share of tackles throughout the season. He also filled in very capably at calling plays.

DON KILLEEN, Senior, Manager. Don was the go-getter of the team. Always with a laugh and on the run, he was of great help to the whole squad.

JOE WHEELER, Senior, Back. Joe was used as the utility man of the team until the Alma game. On his first varsity play, Joe ran for a clean cut touchdown. He also did some of the kicking off.

BOB HORWOOD, Senior, Guard. Bob was a very hard working guard and truly earned his berth on the first team. On offense he could always be counted on to open up the center of the defensive line.

TOM OTTO, Junior, Back. Tom was a hard hitting fullback and could be counted on for the extra two or three yards. He played fine ball until he injured his knee and was out for a few games.

DAN BURLINGAME, Senior, Manager. Dan did an excellent job keeping tab of all the equipment. He was very efficient and a great help to the coach and the boys.

HENRY RATHER, Senior, Trainer. Hank was by far the greatest trainer the school has ever had. He was always there to take care of the bumps and cuts the boys received.

Reserve and Freshman Football

The reserve squad, coached by Mr. Buschman, had a seven game schedule this fall. They won five out of the seven losing twice to a strong Lansing Sexton team.

The freshman squad, coached by Mr. Adams, won three, tied one and lost one to give a fine showing of the up and coming athletes.

Coaching Staff

MR. KETCHMAN — Director of Athletics

In his two short years, Coach Ketchman has accomplished much. As head football coach in his first year here his team placed second in the Twin Valley Conference, and this year he coached the team to the championship. During the basketball seasons Coach Ketchman has led the reserve cagers through two very successful seasons. At the helm of the baseball team, Mr. Ketchman has turned out a championship and a second place team in the Conference.

Although Coach Ketchman worked the fellows very hard, he has gained the utmost respect of all who have come in contact with him on and off the athletic field.

Melvin C. Buschman MR. BUSCHMAN — Basketball Coach

As head basketball coach last year, Mr. Buschman led his squad to a highly successful season, with the team playing in the State Semi Final Game. This year he has worked hard with the fellows and at this time the team is third in the Conference race. Coach Buschman is also coach of the reserve football squad and has completed two fine seasons in that position. In the spring he coaches Tennis and has recently taken over the job as boys' counsellor for the school.

MR. ADAMS — Track Coach

In his long years at East Lansing Coach Adams has brought many trophies to the school through his track teams. During the spring practices one may hear the report of his famous starting gun. Through football season Mr. Adams may be seen running the Freshman Squad through their drill.

DOCTOR BRITTON

Doctor Britton has been associated with East Lansing High School Athletic teams for many, many years. Through his untiring service he has become a permanent fixture of the school. So permanent, that this year our lighted football field was named in his honor. "Doc", as he is known to all, is always on hand to give his time and skill to help the fellows. At the games he has become as much a part of the squad as the coaches and players themselves. Yes, we from East Lansing take our hats off to one of the finest men in the world, Doctor C. H. Britton.

Other members of the coaching staff are Mr. Rinehart of band and orchestra fame, who coaches our fine golf team.

In wrestling we find Mr. Cole, from Michigan State College, who coaches the up and coming major sport.

Varsity Basketball

Back Row: Coach Buschman, B. Foster, J. Greenshield, J. Slotnick, J. Herrick, J. Adams, J. Thompson, E. Ruhl, B. Horwood (manager).

Front Row: F. Fabian, J. Morse, S. Stoddard, R. Penner, J. Delany, B. Metzel, B. Waddel.

The basketball season is about done; so let's take a brief look into the records to see what kind of team East Lansing had. First we find a hard working coach — Mr. Buschman. Next there are the players — tall, experienced, and intent. But last, and far from least, is this thing called team spirit, which we find was at times lacking, for the team came out with a record of eleven won and six lost.

To open the season the Trojans met Lansing Tech on the Panther court and walked off with an impressive 49-26 win. That same week the big test came when the Trojans entertained their first Twin Valley team, Hillsdale. After a hard fought contest the game was a tie; however in overtime playing E. L. cagers came out with a prized 39-38 victory. Next away in a close game with Sturgis, E. L. met defeat 44-40.

At this date Christmas vacation started and the team prepared for the Lansing area tournaments. In the first game the Trojans defeated Lansing Everett on the Vocational floor 35-32. The following night the team walked off with the championship, defeating Lansing Tech by the lopsided score of 53-39.

Back in their regular schedule the Trojans took on Coldwater, the league leading team, and were defeated 53-48. In the same week they bounded back and beat a strong Marshall squad 53-51. The next two games were victories: 54-30 with Albion and 51-30 with Adrian.

At the half way mark in the season, the Trojans suffered defeats: first, with Battle Creek Lakeview 44-42; second, with Hillsdale, losing in the last few seconds 35-33. At home the squad played Sturgis and evened its count by winning 35-24. Playing a second time that week, the Trojans went to Adrian where they took the Maples 43-27. Again away, the cagers played the undefeated Coldwater team. After playing a nip and tuck game, the Cardinals pulled away to win a 47-35 victory. In the last away game of the season the team defeated Marshall 39-26. To finish off at home, the Trojans first played the second place conference team, Lakeview, and lost 64-38. Second, they defeated Albion 39-35.

And so the records go, we have a completed season. During the time we had many outstanding players. Jim Herrick, the leading scorer of the team, really put on many fine performances. Jack Greenshield, Jack Slotnick, Jim Delaney, and Jim Thomson all added their share by coming through when the team needed points.

Now as we go to press, the school is looking forward with great anticipation to what this fine team can do in the State Tournaments. Whether they win or lose they have still completed a successful season.

The 1947 baseball team enjoyed a highly successful season. The big blues scheduled nine games and won six, losing only three. This fine record placed the team second in the Twin Valley Conference.

The Trojans stepped up to the plate to hammer out a 2-0 win against Coldwater in their opening game out at the East Lansing diamond. The following week Adrian journeyed to East Lansing to edge out the Trojans 2-1 in a hard fought pitchers' battle. The Trojans took to the road for their third game, taking the short trip down to Lansing Tech. Here the big blues' bats connected and the team pounded out a 5-1 win. Again the next week the Trojans' bats blazed as Albion fell by the score of 7-1 on the big blues' home field. The following week the Trojans played a return game with the Panthers of Lansing Tech. at the East Lansing diamond. The team hit a slump and with several errors came out on the short end of a 5-2 score, making it the second loss in five starts. At this point the Trojans journeyed to Lakeview to play the league leading nine. Here the big blues played a hard fought game, only to lose in the last inning of play, by the score of 3-2. Then the Trojans came to life, winning their last three games in fine shape. Marshall was first, falling by a close 3-2 score. Next came a rather weak Hillsdale nine. The men of Troy blasted out a 5-0 win on the Hornets' home field. In the last game of the season the Trojan squad, under the fine coaching of Mr. Ketchman, beat a strong Sturgis team 2-1 to finish a highly successful year.

Some of the outstanding players of the season were Johnny Meyer, star pitcher and heavy hitter; Charlie Hoffer and Cary Bachman, hard working infielders. Bob Buchanan, a fine outfielder; and Ronnie Penner, the second baseman, who lead the team in hitting.

Although Coach Ketchman lost six men off this squad, he should produce another great team this coming spring. Coach Ketchman has such men returning as Ron Penner, Bob Kropschot, Bill Metzel, Pat White, and Bob Ewing from which to build his 1948 baseball team.

Track

Third Row: Mr. Adams, D. Thomson, C. Weber, J. Sur, J. Moxley, D. Burlingame, J. Wheeler, J. Adams, J. Bachman, D. Reed, J. Greenshield, D. Lockwood, B. Severance, G. Landon.

Second Row: D. Tuttle, B. McCristal, J. Johnson, H. Metzmaker, F. Fabian, J. Reddy, T. Dawson, B. Horwood, P. Mendelsohn, B. Pierson, B. Foster, E. Thaden, J. Ketchum, E. Beurmann, T. Seble.

First Row: D. Hunt, D. Ingersoll, J. Ketchum, J. Theroux, J. Sheedy, H. Rathfoot, B. Lewsader, B. Campbell, J. Ehinger, T. Rainey.

As the first signs of spring were approaching, Coach Lynn Adams was hard at work setting the stage for the 1947 track season. And what a stage it was. There were three dual meets scheduled, two invitationals, the Twin Valley meet and the Regional and State meets; but the boys were good actors and they went to work.

First came the dual meet with Williamston. The Trojan Thinclads swept to a decisive victory $86\frac{1}{2}$ to $22\frac{1}{2}$. Next came Charlotte. The Orioles out-pointed our boys in the distances and came out on the long end of a $67\frac{1}{6}$ to $41\frac{5}{6}$ victory. The following week the Thinclads traveled to the Hastings Relays and were hopelessly out-classed, coming out twelfth in a field of sixteen. Bouncing back the following week, the Trojans defeated one of their old rivals, Howell, by the very close and exciting score of 55 to 54. At the last meet before the Twin Valley, the men of Troy placed seventh out of a field of eighteen at the Albion Invitational meet.

On May 14 the Trojan Thinclads journeyed to Marshall for the big Twin Valley meet. The boys were primed for the occasion and brought back many surprise victories in various events. Joe Wheeler set a new meet record in both high and low hurdles. When it was all over and the points were counted up, the Trojans had $42\frac{3}{4}$ to place third in the field of eight.

The Regional meet at Mt. Pleasant proved a little too tough with East Lansing placing third behind two strong teams, Fremont and Alma. Competing at the State meet, the Trojans had Joe Wheeler in the hurdles, Bob Pierson in the 440 yard run and the relay team of Dan Reed, Howard Metzmaker, Dale Lockwood and Bob Pierson. Although the Trojan delegation failed to place, they came very close in each event.

In the coming season Mr. Adams may well look forward to a successful year. Out of his last year's squad he loses only three men. A brief glance over the returning squad sees men returning in almost all events. Yes, the 1948 season should contain some prized victories for Coach Adams and his Thinclads.

Golf

The golf team of 1947 turned out a record of which East Lansing High School should be proud. Our team, consisting of Ken Fuce, John Dykstra, Reggie Myles, and Ed Jones, went undefeated in their regular twelve game schedule.

With Mr. Rinehart directing them again, they entered the Twin Valley meet and brought back first place honors along with a beautiful trophy.

In state-wide competition they advanced through and won the regionals. From here the team moved on to the state meet at Kalamazoo where they finished fourth.

During the season three of the boys shot a 77 stroke game which is considered an excellent score for any high school golfer. On one occasion the team shot a brilliant 327 total meaning the average of each player was $81\frac{3}{4}$ strokes.

The golf prospects for 1948 look exceptionally promising as all of the varsity squad will be back.

Congratulations Mr. Rinehart and Trojan golf team members. East Lansing High considers that you are undoubtedly one of the finest groups of golfers that East Lansing has ever had.

Tennis

The Trojan tennis team finished the 1947 season with a two win, six loss record. In Twin Valley school competition they encountered a powerful Lakeview squad twice and dropped both matches by lop-sided scores of 7-0 and 6-1. On another occasion the Trojan net men dropped a 6-1 decision to Adrian.

In the other matches East Lansing met all class A competition and fared somewhat better. After losing to Sexton 6-1, our netters met Eastern twice, defeating them both times by scores of 6-1 and 5-2. Midland then won two close matches from us by scores of 3-2 and 4-3.

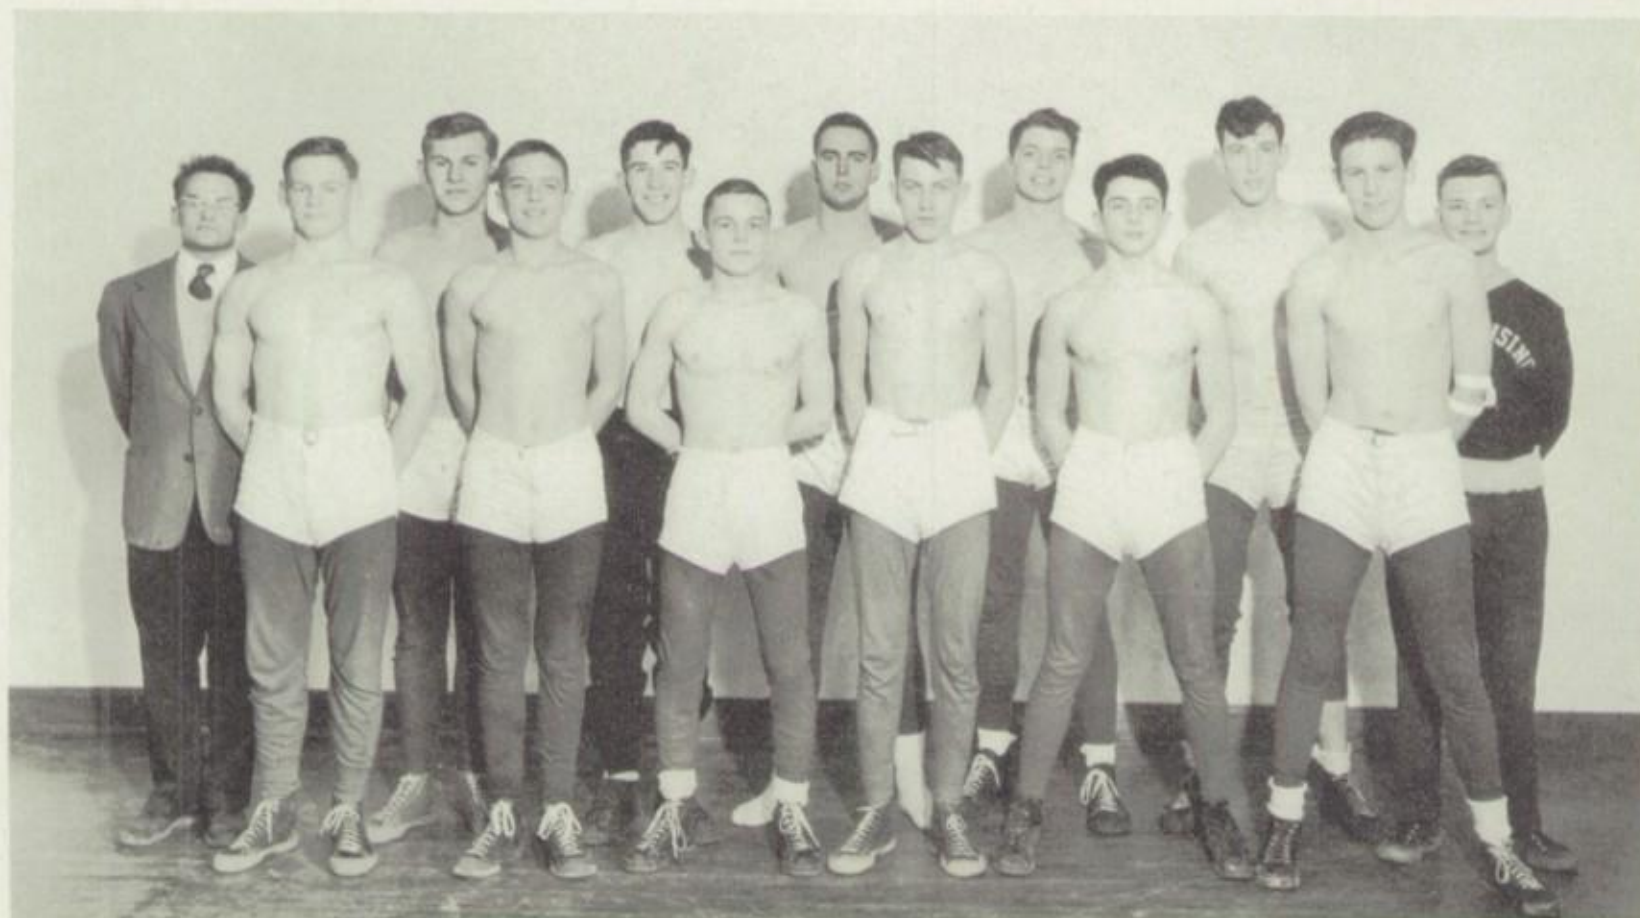

The team also entered the state meet at Kalamazoo, only to lose in the first round.

Graduation closed the high school careers of three of our net men; namely, Bob Kettenun and John Snyder, both singles men, and Henry Baccus, a doubles partner.

The Trojans boast a returning squad of six players, however. Howard Weaver, Stan Stoddard, Jim Delaney, Sam Baker, Ken Kliman, and Bob Blow will all be back to bolster the squad. Along with these boys there will be Larry Cooke and John Brogan and several other promising underclassmen.

With Mr. Buschman coaching them again and, the new high school tennis courts completed, the Trojan net men are looking toward a very successful season next year.

Wrestling

Back Row: Coach Gordon Cole, G. Richards, J. Clark, J. Dykstra, D. Burlingame, B. Krop-schot, W. Seyffert.

Front Row: M. Richards, D. Wolverton, J. Claucherty, W. Aven, J. Sander, K. Fuce.

In 1947 the wrestling team under the coaching of Mr. Johnson, Mr. Goldsmith, and Mr. Cole made wrestling a very popular sport throughout the school. As student coaches, they did a very fine job in organizing the team.

This year the wrestlers have scheduled seven matches. The first match with Everett being cancelled, the matmen journeyed down to Everett January 19 and won 29 to 14. The following week they went against Jackson, a Class A school. The boys came out on the short end of a 24 to 19 score, but still made a fine showing. Returning home again the Trojan matmen were beaten by Battle Creek Central, 31 to 7. The next meet found the Trojans down at Sexton, where they were beaten 29 to 11. February 26 they prepared to meet the Jackson wrestlers here.

The outstanding men of the squad have been Gary and Marlow Richards and Dan Burlingame. There have been other hard working fellows among the wrestlers.

Cheer Leaders

- - - "Come on team fight. Come on, team, fight!" That's just one example of the swell job our cheer leaders have been doing all through the year. Under the sponsorship of the Senior Student Council, these peppy gals and fellows have been divided into three groups — varsity, reserve, and freshman — and can be found at any and every game leading cheers for their respective teams. They have been represented on the pep assembly committee and have taken an active part in almost all pep assemblies. Did you ever wonder where we developed all that school spirit? It doesn't take as much to stir it up as it does to organize it and make those yells something we can all be proud of! "Three cheers for the cheer leaders!"

Ye Old Testament

- I, CAROL MOORE, breathlessly bestow Senior GAA upon Lenore Fulkerson.
- I, ELLEN PARSONS, sorrowfully leave the care of my horses to Barbara Werle.
- I, HENRY RATHER, turn the radio programs back to "John's Other Wife."
- I, HAROLD RATHFOOT, sadly hand down my jokes in hopes that someone, some day will laugh at them.
- I, GARY RICHARDS, bequeath my Herculean shoulder pads to my brother, Marlowe.
- I, BOB SCOTT, regretfully leave my photographic equipment — and experiences — to Bill Dietrich.
- I, JAKE SLOTNICK, bestow my little black address book upon anyone heading for Detroit and parts there about.
- I, JOE SUR, hereby grant my record collection to Paul Whiteman.
- I, DONNA THOMPSON, give my turtle-neck sweaters back to the turtles — who need them more than I do.
- I, BOB VANHOESON, leave my last name to anyone who can pronounce it correctly.
- I, HOWIE WEAVER, bestow my tennis racket upon Jack Kramer.
- I, JEANNE WERLE, confer upon Erich Beurmann my lengthy locks.
- I, PAT WHITE, do hereby will my afternoons at Steve's to the rest of the "Recreation Parlor" athletes.

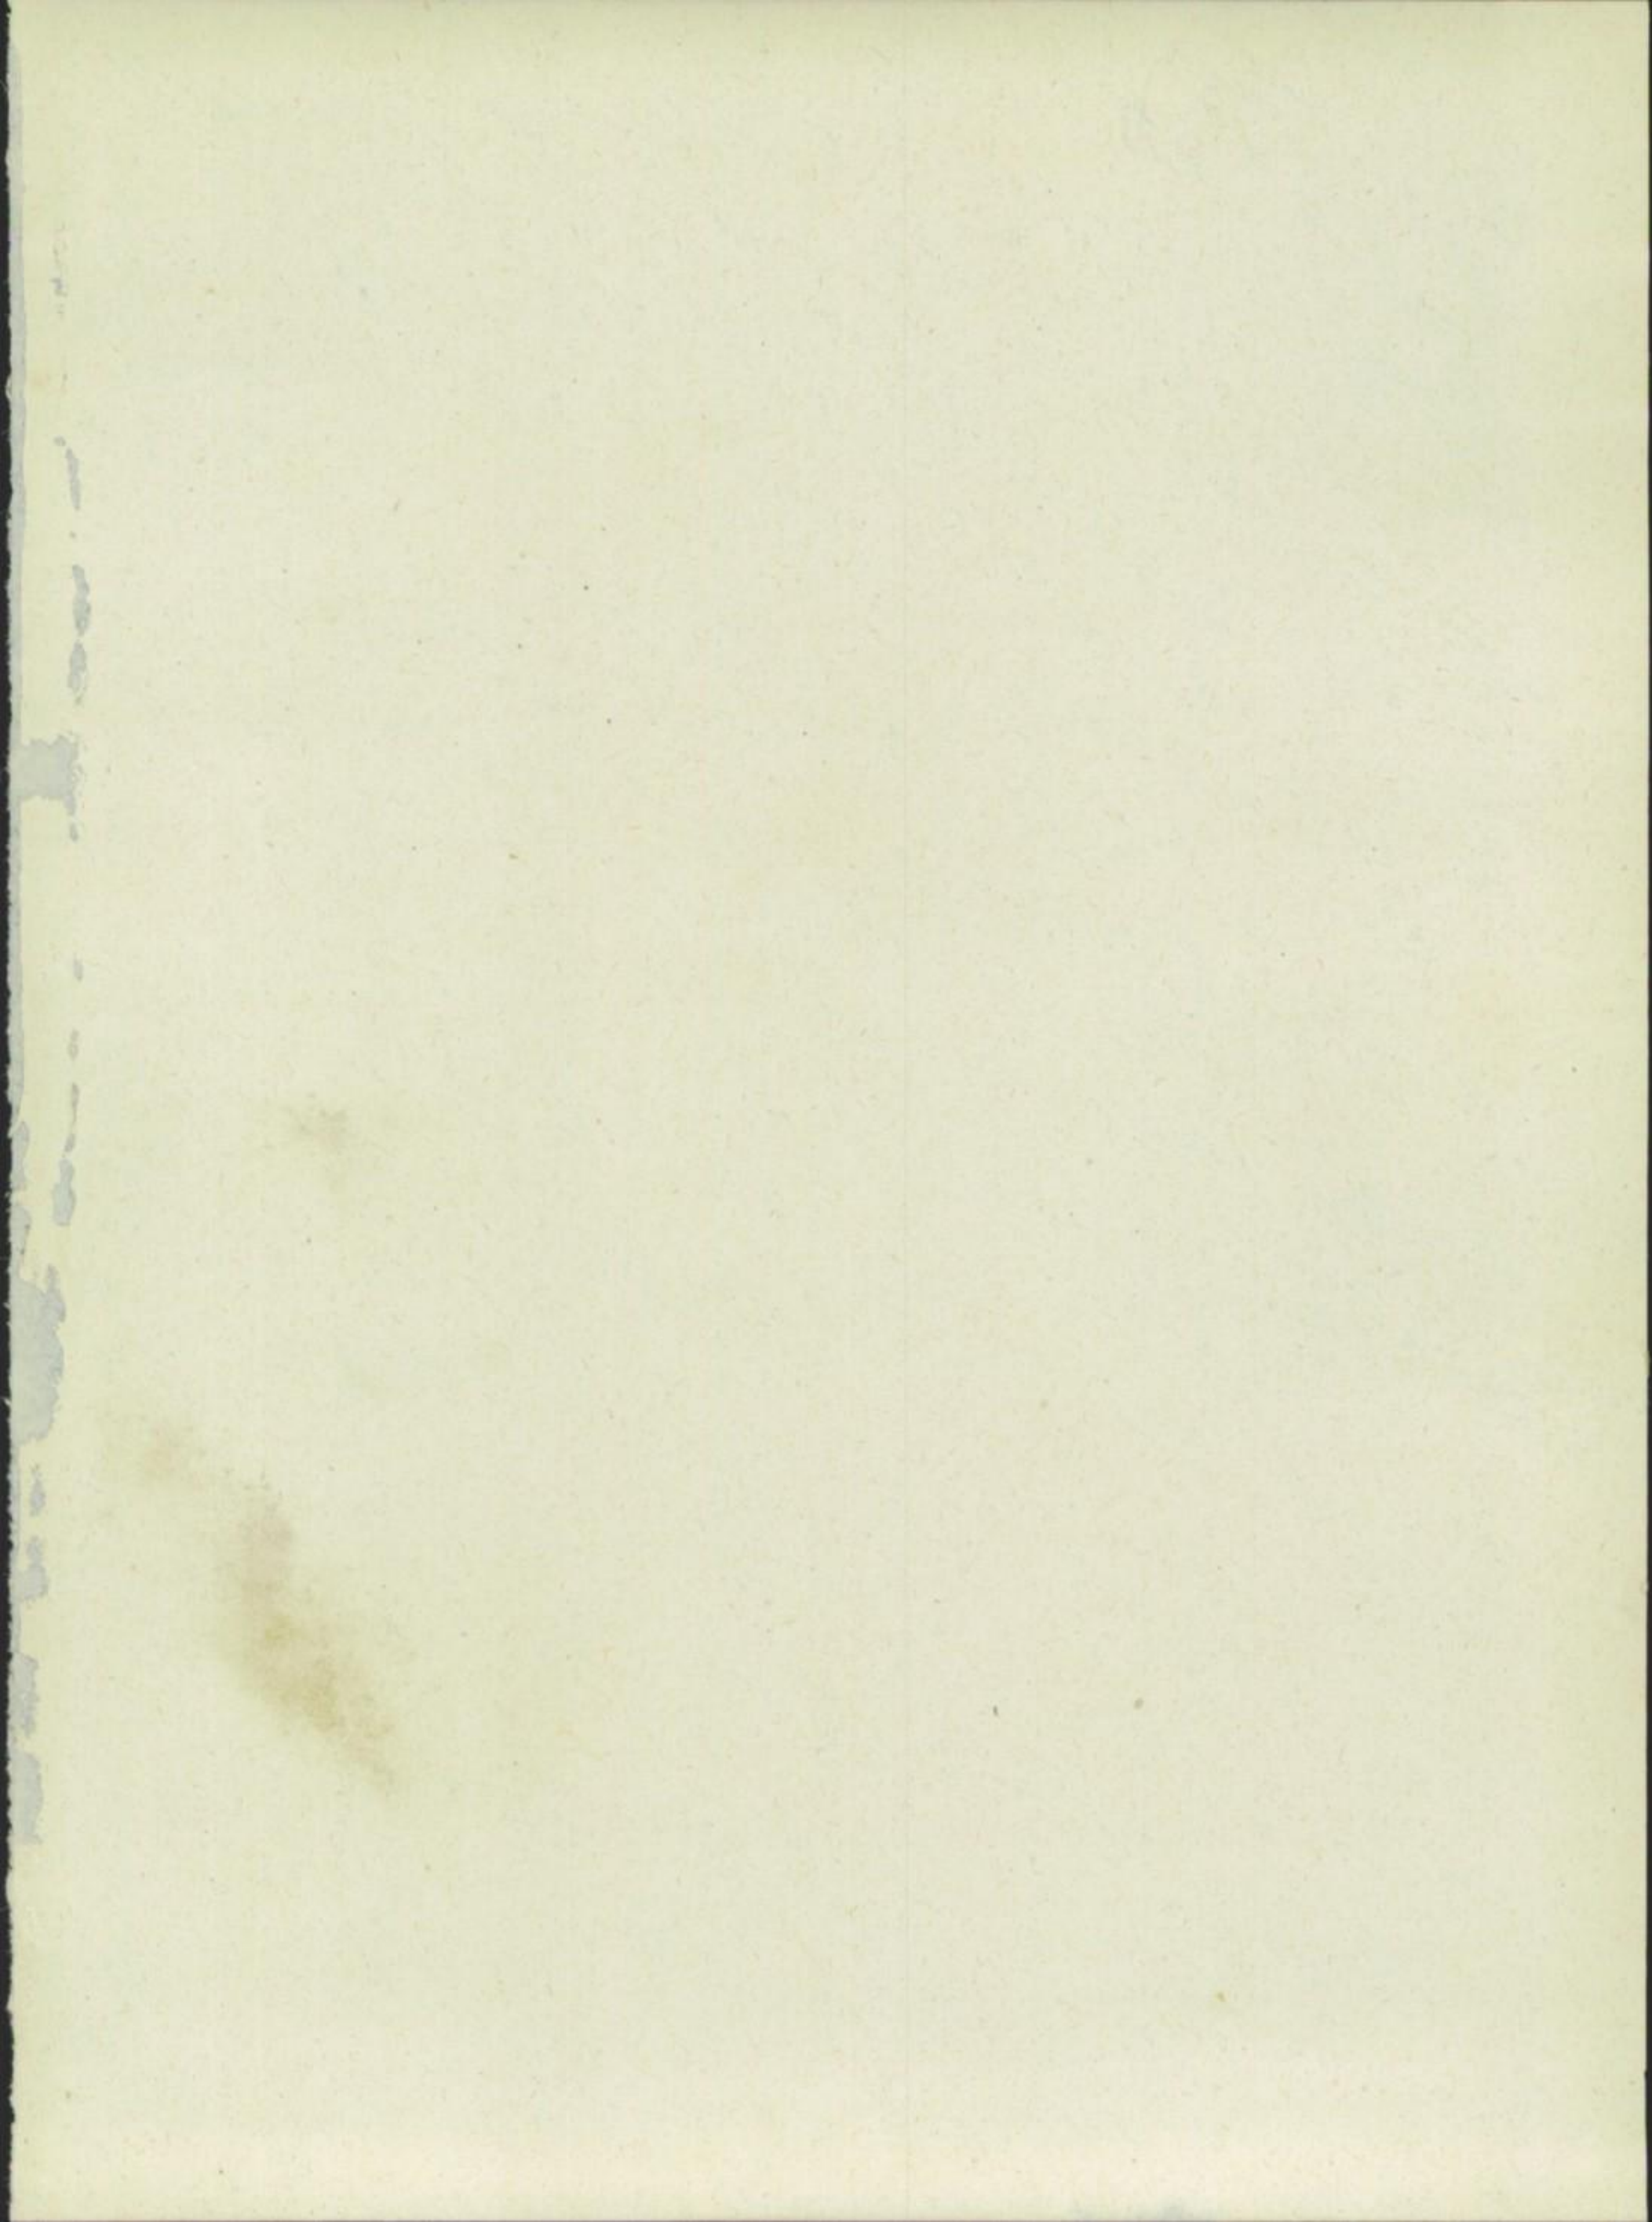

A Wail

There they sat all twenty and pondered,
Ne'er an eye from the table wandered.
Suddenly up jumped the master,
Talking fast and even faster.
Said the genius, "I have a plan!
Let's start our yearbook while we can."
All eyes turned upon the girl,
All heads gave a merry twirl.
Each one nodded his approval,
Each one started his removal,
To a work with dead line date,
Thus her plan she did relate.
First they found a good photographer;
One of them became a biographer,
One took snapshots left and right,
Others pasted — day and night;
Janie told them to do their best,

She gave them but little rest.
Time slipped past as all time will,
Days — e'en weeks with each their fill
Of dashing. Writings to be done,
Pictures, dummies — they missed none.
"Copy, copy! Bring more copy."
Typists made the keys look lippy
With their typing and their hurry.
Deadlines kept them in a flurry.
March first came just like a dream,
"Ceniad's done!" the staff did scream.
All fell down into a swoon,
Didn't wake 'til nearly June.
Now the Ceniad's done at last,
All the drudgery is past.
Here's the Ceniad, for you,
HOPE YOU'LL ALL ENJOY IT TOO!!!

The staff wishes to thank the students and faculty for their cooperation in preparing this Ceniad. Students who gave us special help were: Dorothy Vickers, Dorothy Branaman, Jack Greenshield, Jim Delaney, Stan Stoddard, Rosemary Wise, Barbara Peeke, Bob Horwood, Chuck Weber, and the class presidents.

15a
Dear Gullman,
This note will be brief but to the point.
I am not so good at clever saying so I will not try to write any.

I hope you that you have a lot of fun this summer and that you won't get sea-sick when you have your cruise.
I hope that in college you will have fun and good snacks (or should I say a naval school!).

Try to keep Jack from being to naughty and to tell you the truth I think he is a swell guy. You have been a very good friend so far and I hope we always will be good friends.

Good Luck always.
